

I am opposed to raising the cap on media ownership. It is vital to our democracy to promote diverse and multiple ownership of all media to ensure that all views can be shared among the people.